

Feather:

Oh my, Oh no,
I'm out of the pillow
a feather like me
alone in the wind
Oh my, Oh no
the world is not small
not everything was in this pillow.
Oh my, Oh no
Hey wind let me go
I'm going too close to the window.
Oh my, Oh no,
the breeze made me flow
I softly now land
on the world

Bird:

Hey feather my friend, where to?
Sit here by my side, won't you?
I feel on this window and hurt
I miss now a feather it hurts
I wish I could fly like i like
I don't want to stay here and cry

Feather:

Are you a bird that can talk?
What if together we walk?

Bird:

What do you mean please explain.

Feather:

I have been closed in a cage
now that a feather you need

Both:

We can combine what we need

Feather:

I like to fly and to see
Looks like a beautiful world
inside the pillow so long

Bird:

You really know what you miss.
I need to fly again
To flap my wings and to leave
The land is no place for me

Feather:

Take me with you, please, please, please!

Both:

What if I am the bird you miss?
What if I am the feather in your wings?
Hop on my back and nest
Flap me, yes, hey be my guest!

Both:

Together, together,
we fly together,
feathers and wings

Bird:

Look how we click!

Feather:

The river, the land,
the wave and the fish

islands in the sea

Both:

They match!

Together we can

Together we make

Together we fly oh so high!

Bird:

If you were not here

my feather so dear

I would be stuck on the ground

Feather:

I am so happy we match!

Bird:

Let's rest here's my nest

Feather:

I can't get enough

Your world so much better than mine

The flowers, the smells,

the rivers, the wells,

the beauty i see makes me smile

Bird:

My feather so white

I love you tonight

and will always love you forever

Feather:

You gave me a world

a nest and a bond

together we make this world happen

Bird:

You gave me this gift

the beauty to see

together we make this world happen

Both:

Together, together,

we fly together,

feathers and wings

Bird:

Look how we click!

Feather:

The river, the land,

the wave and the fish

islands in the sea

Both:

They match!

Together we can

Together we make

Together we fly oh so high!
